

Why are my tweezers not exactly the same dimensions as shown on the drawing?

CHP tweezers, as well as other high precision tweezers in the market, are hand finished. This hand finishing process means that there are small variations in the final dimensions of the tweezers compared to the drawing as well as when comparing against other CHP tweezers with the same part number. These small variations are not a defect and do not adversely affect the function of the tweezers.

HakkoUSA Knowledge Base

<https://kb.hakkousa.com/Knowledgebase/12080/Why-are-my-tweezers-not-exactly...>